DR. W. M. HILL IS NO MORE.

Aged and Honored Physician
Succumbs to Infirmities
of Old Age.

WAS 78 YEARS OLD.

Was Once a Member of the City Council and Filled
the Position Well.

Dr. William M. Hill, who had been confined to his bed for several weeks,
died of senility at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been unconscious at intervals for four or five days. He would rally from his stupor for a while, but failed constantly in strength from time he was taken down. He never recovered from the carbuncle that appeared on his neck
two or three years ago; his sight had been failing for some time, and during last few months he was unable to recognize his most intimate friends
when he met them on the streets.

Dr. Hill began the study of medicine when quite young with Dr. D.
J. Gish, and after graduating at Hahnemann Homeopathic College in Philadelphia, in 1861, returned to this county and began practicing at Liberty church, where he remained for four or five years. He then came to the city and entered into partnership with Dr. D. J. Gish. There were only seven homeopathic physicians in the state when Dr. Hill graduated. Now there are 150. He loved his profession and was very successful, building up quite a large practice.

He was a genial, highminded gentleman and was a friend to everybody. He never failed to respond to the call of the poor who needed his services and had the esteem of all.
He served a term as chairman of the council, and always took deep interest in all public enterprises. He was a member of the Christian church for forty years or more, and, unless professionally prevented, hardly ever failed to be in his seat before the weight of years pressed too heavily upon him. He was sensitive to the extreme about his age, and there is no definite knowledge, probably, as to the exact number of his years,
though he is supposed to have neared
the four score limit—probably 76 or 78 years. He was married to Miss Alice Cayce, who survives him. He has several brothers in the county.
Funeral services will be held at the Christian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. D. Smith.
Interment in Hopewell.

House Breaking.

Sandy Bellington, the colored host-ler of Mr. W. T. Tandy, was arrested yesterday morning on a warrant sworn out by William Alexander,
colored, who is in the employ of Mr.
E. M. Flack. Alexander charges Bellington with having gained forcible entrance into his house about 7 o'clock Sunday night and stealing $7 in money. Bellington was placed in jail to await his trial before Judge Brasher yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Bohannon Dead.

The wife of Mr. J. H. Bohannon
died at her home on Durrett Avenue last Saturday. She was 51 years of age and had been ill from pneumonia for several days. She leaves her husband and ten children to mourn her departure. She was for many years a member of the Bethel Methodist church, a general favorite with her neighbors and had many friends.
The burial took place in Hopewell
Sunday afternoon.

Women Aroused.

Women of the U. D. C., of Kentucky, numbering 3,000 have formed a lobby to urge the passage of a bill appropriating $20,000 for a Kentucky monument at Shiloh. Many of the women will go to Frankfort.

FIRE LADDIES HOLD MEETING

Resolutions Expressive of Regret at Retirement of Chief Randle.

ROPER REMEMBERED

Addresses By the Mayor and City Judge.

The fire department held an interesting meeting in the hall of their building last Saturday night.

After the meeting had been called to order the following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted and ordered to be spread on the records of the department, a copy furnished to former Chief, George E. Randle, and a copy furnished to each of the city papers for publication:

on the Fire Department; is a member of the contracting firm of Hester & Thompson, and is one of the most popular young business men in city.

and that his resignation, has been accepted by the Mayor and City Council, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we hereby express our deepest regret at the retirement of Chief Randle from this department, feeling that after 22
years of faithful service—12 years of which he has, as Chief, most efficiently controlled our movements in fighting the fire-fends after serving ten years in the ranks—we and the city are losing a fireman whose place will be difficult to fill and a gentleman worthy of the fullest confidence.

RESOLVED, That while we cannot fittingly express in words our regret at Chief Randle's action, he has the assurance that every man of the department will always remember him for his uniform courtesy to us, his watchfulness in the hour of danger,
as well as his courage and deliberate judgment when such qualities manifest the true man at the trying moment when battling with the flames.

RESOLVED, That while necessity demands that we shall extend the parting hand to our Chief as a brother fireman, we heartily wish him all the happiness he so richly deserves,
and may his years be many and prosperous.

WOLF HUNT.

Exciting Chase in the Vicinity of Hawkins.

A thrilling wolf hunt occurred in the vicinity of Hawkins, in the western part of Christian county, last week. About four years ago a man named Parsons caught a large, gray wolf in a trap. He exhibited him in this city and finally sold him to a butcher at Dawson, who kept him in captivity until a short while ago when he made his escape and returned to the Hawkins neighborhood and rejoined a pack still there. He had a long chain attached to him and could be easily tracked by the mark of the chain. A hunting party was organized and the trail was struck of the pack of five wolves.
In the chase all escaped except the old wolf, who was handicapped by his chain and was finally overtaken by the dogs and killed by a young man named Sharp. In his fight the chain would wrap around bushes and the animal would stop long enough to cut down the bushes with his teeth, and resume the fight. He was holding the dogs at bay when killed. The hunt caused excitement in that part of the county. The wolves have destroyed many sheep and other stock during the last few years.

NO AILING WOMEN. A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Hopkinsville.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed or swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby and sometimes displacing them. This is the true cause of many bearing-down troubles, lameness, backache, sideache, etc. Urinary poisoning also causes headache, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatism.

When suffering, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Hopkinsville woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. W. H. Robb, wife of W. H. Robb, machinist, employed at the Forbes & Co's. wagon works, and residing at 1029 High St., says: "I hardly knew what it was to be free from an aching back and the irregular action of the kidneys caused at the same time other symptoms which were distressing and often exasperating. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and the symptoms which it was claimed it would cure seemed so much like mine that I had my husband get a box at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. I found that they gave me almost immediate relief and continued taking them for some time. They did me more good than all the kidney medicine I had ever taken put together and the results of the treatment justify me in subscribing my name to a hearty endorsement of your remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effective medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up-to-date druggists at Hopkinsville.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.

One who is subject to bilious attacks will notice that for a day or more before the attack he is not hungry at meal times and feels dull after eating. A dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when these first symptoms appear will ward off the attack. They are for sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up-to-date druggists at Hopkinsville.

The Weather.

For Kentucky: Tuesday partly cloudy and colder.

Rev. W. N. Cleveland, a brother of the former President, is dying of paralysis at Columbus, Ohio.

The Democratic District Committee will meet in Madisonville to-morrow to call a Congressional primary election.

March Field, the millionaire merchant of Chicago, is critically ill at a hotel in New York, of pneumonia.

France and Venezuela have severed diplomatic relations. Minister Russell, the American minister, is looking after French interests at Caracas.

A boundary line between Boyle and Casey counties, long a subject of dispute, has been settled in favor of Casey county. Boyle loses 250 acres containing 12 or 13 voters.

Representative Southall has introduced a bill calculated to remove doubt as to which is the right Tuesday to elect a senator. It changes the time to the first Wednesday after the organization of the General Assembly.

Representative Yaden, of Laurel, a Republican member, wants a bill passed requiring all candidates for office to file with the grand jury an itemized statement of their campaign expenses. He says it is getting so a poor man cannot run for office in his part of the State.

Two constitutional amendments have been proposed in the legislature. One by Mr. Bourne adds a new qualification by requiring voters to show their tax receipts before they can vote. The other proposed by Senator Lancaster adds a uniform franchise license and income tax in lieu of a tax on personal property.

Although President Morals has been run out of the county, the hostilities still continue in Sando Domingo. A bloody battle was fought between troops of Gen. Caceres, the temporary president and the insurgents Guayubin. Many Generals on both sides were killed or wounded.

SHOT HIMSELF

Accidentally and the Wound Results in Death.

Pod. Ky., Jan. 13.—Mr. Ollie C. Gray shot himself, near Gladys, Thursday night, and died from the effects of the wound. He was handling a revolver, when the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball taking effect in his bowels. Dr. Durham was summoned, but could do nothing to relieve the wounded man and he suffered great agony. Mr. Gray was about twenty-four years old and a widower, his wife having died last fall. Since the death of his wife he and his little two-year-old child had been living with the former's father-in-law, Mr. J. K. Thomas, at whose house the fatal accident occurred. Cy Klone.

Bad Blood

Is responsible for most of the diseases and ailments of the human system. It seriously affects every organ and function, causes catarrh, dyspepsia, rheumatism, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla which purifies and enriches the blood as nothing else can.

For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on the Blood, No. 3, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Symptoms of Disease.

Disease is a most difficult thing to wrestle with in poultry. It is far easier to prevent it than it is to combat it when it obtains a foothold. Often a person will employ more time and medicine than the bird is worth. The following will help most poultrymen to locate a difficulty and will also suggest treatment.

When the excitement secreted by the kidneys, which is normally pure white, appears yellow, though the droppings are solid and the bird appears perfectly healthy, look out for bowel trouble.

When the crop is hard, distended and unyielding there is danger of the bird being crop bound.

When the discharges are streaked with blood it is time to give preventives for diarrhoea.

When the joints are hot and swollen and the fowl is disinclined to stand, rheumatism has taken hold.

When the nostrils are clogged with dirt and the eyes water ward if possible cases of crop by timely treatment. If the case is bad apply the hatchet.

When a bird is lame in one foot and a swelling is observed remove it to a place where there are no roosts and compel it to roost on some straw or other material. It is bumble foot, and is cured in this manner.

When a hen drops down behind, goes to the nest often but does not lay she is suffering from a disorder of the oviduct and might as well be killed and eaten.

When a bird is "going light," has a good appetite, but passes food from the bowels undigested, it is the early stages of consumption and treatment is useless.

When a bird has a weakness with no disorder of the liver, feed lighter and give plenty of the bone forming food.

When new fowls are bought they should be quarantined until one is assured that they have no disease that is communicative to the flock.

Greenish discharges, turning to frothy white, are given as a symptom of cholera.

A dark, purple color indicates congestion of the liver. The Homestead.

FAMOUS BLOODHOUNDS.

Two Canine Detectives Find a Robbers' Den in a Water Tank—Stolen Articles Returned.

Nick Davenport kept what is called in the south "a general store," in the little town of Valley Head, Ala. One morning Mr. Davenport went to the store to find cans and boxes broken open, scattered about the floor, while a drink containing money had been smashed and its contents stolen, relates the Pilgrim. The robbers left no clew whatever to their identity. Luckily he had heard about Echo and O'Higgins, two bloodhounds noted for hunting down criminals. Possibly they might trace the perpetrators of the crime. A telegram sent to Detective Phillips brought him to Valley Head the same night. Without delay the dogs were led to the store. Running around the store for a moment and sniffing here and there among the articles littered upon it, both with a short bark started for the door, pulling the detective along as fast as he could run in their eagerness to follow the trail. Straight they went to the railroad track which passes through the town.

News that the canine detectives and their master had come to the village to ferret out the robbery, if possible, had spread from one end of the place to the other, and back of the dogs hurried a crowd of a score or more armed with shotguns and pistols. But they were to have a long and hard chase. Mile after mile the animals, now unleashed, scampered over the ties which their noses almost touched. At last they came to a railroad bridge, but not stopping they carefully picked their way along the perilous path, although a misstep would have thrown them between the ties and into the river below.

Long after midnight the dogs halted in front of a tank used for supplying water to the locomotives. "I wonder if they're in there," said the detective. "The dogs certainly would not stop here and act the way they do."

"I reckon they're right," said a railroad man, who had joined in the pursuit. "That tank sprang a leak some time ago, and it's empty, so anybody could easily climb up the ladder on the outside and let themselves down into it."

"Well, I will just go up and take a look inside. Give me that lantern you've got." And snatching the deed to the word, Phillips, with pistol in one hand and lantern in the other, climbed to the top of the tank, while the crowd waited breathlessly.

"Here they are, boys. Just stand in a circle round while I tell them to come out."

In response to his command to surrender, in a minute a black head appeared above the top of the tank, and its owner silently crawled down the ladder, until he saw the dogs leaping at him, when he halted. Echo and O'Higgins were loosed, and then two other black heads appeared above the top of the tank. As fast as the men came down they were tied together. Then some of the party descended into the tank and found enough provisions to last them for months—all stolen from Nick Davenport's store. Most of the money taken from the store was in their pockets. Needless to say, Echo and O'Higgins had a choice supper, or rather breakfast, of bones with plenty of meat on them when they returned to Valley Head long after daylight the next morning.

HIGH SCHOOL

Boys Lost in Game of Basketball Ball.

The basketball game between the teams of S. K. C. and the Public High School, played Friday night, was won by the S. K. C. boys. The score was 24 to 12. The contest was snappy from start to finish, but the S. K. C. team had the advantage in long practice and much training. The line up was as follows:

H. H. S.	Forward	S. K. C.
Waller	McCarley
Young	Forward	Holland
Dabney	Guard	Warrack
Bartley	Guard Bell	Kuykendall
Earl	Center-Smith	Kuykendall

Smith, the S. K. C. Center, was injured, and Kuykendall took his place. Bell was then put in Kuykendall's position as guard.

Officer Chas. E. Hord is now able to sit up some and his wound is slowly improving.

SAVED MY LIFE

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free. Be sure that this picture is the face of a child in the wrapper of every bottle of Scott's Emulsion you buy.

It's this useless "head" that makes a cigar cost you 5 cents. It takes considerable cleverness and to form the "head" on a cigar. And that's why one cigar with the head costs you three times as much as one Virginia Cheroot.

OLD VIRGINIA CHEROOTS

Package of 3 for 5 cents

(A cheroot is a cigar made without the head)

If you want a cigar that's all cigar—no useless "head" to pay for and then clip off and throw away—made from five different evenly blended grades of fine domestic tobacco, and made in the cleanest cigar-factory in the world—all you have to do is to pass over a nickel and say "Old Virginia Cheroots" wherever cigars are sold.

Your 5 cents will buy three of the million Old Virginia Cheroots smoked every day.

TRADE MARK

DIVIDEND PAYING Oil and Mining Stocks,

Other high grade 4 per cent. guaranteed interest preferred stocks and bonds for sale. OREGON OILS, well No. 11, Lease 87, has been brought in during the month as an oil well, equal to any as the lease and is now a good producer. Well No. 12, Lease 87, has been drilled and is flowing with oil. This makes 11 wells (independent of No. 13) on lease 87, owned by the four companies, drilled within a single "dry hole."

The four Oregan Oil Companies owning the four wells have returned to stock holders, during the year in monthly dividends, the sum of $240,000, applied as actual investment in property and development of approximately $66,000.00, with a handsome surplus yet remaining in their profit fund for extra dividends, subject to the approval of the stockholders at their annual meeting to be held in January.

Withdrawal of oil stocks: the stock of the four companies have been entirely withdrawn from the market. An announcement will probably be made no later than January 15, of the status withdrawal from the market of the stock of the Oregan Petroleum Co., which will begin dividends in January at the same rate as the other four Oregan Petroleum Companies. This Company has demonstrated by its four wells already brought in that it has an existing capacity, with development, equal if not in excess of the four Oregan Petroleum Companies first operating in the first month of the year. It has a surplus in its profit fund of approximately $100,000 at the present time, available for dividends. Any customer desiring to purchase this stock will have to send in their subscription prior to the date of its withdrawal.

The Interstate Oregan Petroleum Co. now has in its profit fund approximately $120,000, against an investment in the property and development of some of less than $20,000, which we think is a remarkable record for 1905 Oregan properties for 1905.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country that is dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure, apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. HER CHARMS

Displayed in Court Attract a Lot of Suitors.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 14.—About thirty days ago Miss Stella Resch, a pretty young woman of Jeffersonville, Ind., appeared before a court of this city in an action for damages against the Louisville Street Railway Company, the Illinois Central and the Henderson Route roads. At the request of her attorney, Miss Resch gave the jury more than a fitting view of her neck, shoulders and arms. The jury immediately awarded her damages to the amount of $3,000.

Since then Miss Resch has received forty-four letters from various parts of the Union, all of a matrimonial character, and still others offering sage advice as to how best to dispose of her wealth, while from Little Rock, Ark., woman, who, according to an investigation made by Miss Resch's attorney, is rich, comes an offer of a home. Miss Resch is of rather a retiring disposition and does not take kindly to the notoriety that has been thrust upon her because the wisdom of her attorney dictated that she expose the injured part of her body to the jury.

OLD CITIZEN PASSED AWAY.

R. C. Thurmond Came to This City in 1853 to Work On Asylum.

AGED 73 YEARS. DEAD

Had Not Been In Good Health For Several Years.

Mr. Richard C. Thurmond, one of the oldest and most widely known citizens of the country died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Kennedy, on the Nashville pike, just outside the city limits.

Mr. Thurmond had not been in good health for several years, having suffered at times from rheumatism. Some time since, while able to work, he had a fall from a scaffold which broke one of his ribs, and owing to his age, he never entirely recovered. He leaves eight living children: Mesdames Lizzie Kennedy, John Covington, Ben Lackey and Charles Hopson, all of this county; Mrs. Sands, of Paducah, and a married daughter in Nashville; also two sons, John C. and Richard Thurmond, Jr.

Mr. Thurmond came to Hopkinsville in 1853 with Mr. John Orr, S. L. Salter and several other men to work on the asylum, which was nearing completion at that time. He concluded to make his home here and married Miss Summers. He was a plasterer by trade and was considered a fine workman. Funeral services were held at Mrs. Kennedy's yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock and the remains were interred in the Summers family burying ground a few miles west of the city.

Let No Louse Escape.

One of our exchanges states that if all poultrymen would be absolutely certain that there was not a single louse, mite, nit or egg of same in the poultry-house as winter begins it would be an almost absolute guarantee against trouble from same the coming summer. This can be so easily done that every one should feel safe in the proposition. After a thorough effort to subdue the possibility of insect vermin, paint the roosts and nest-boxes, cracks and crevices of your poultry houses several times during the winter so as to obliterate the presence of any vermin in and about the houses or upon the poultry. If this could be followed out without hesitation or throughout the entire land ere long the poultry disturbance of insect vermin might be a thing of the past. American Fancier.

METHODIST REVIVAL.

Packed House Sunday Night and Interest Increasing.

It is estimated that there were six hundred people packed into the Methodist church Sunday night. The windows were packed full, as were the chairs in the aisle and around the altar, while numbers of people were standing where they could find room.

The pastor, Dr. Lyon, made a few remarks before the sermon, in which he said that the outlook for great results was most promising. He has not seen a despondent hour since he entered upon his pastorate here, and Sunday had been one of the gladdest of all.

Rev. P. H. Davis is one of the most earnest of speakers and claimed the closest attention of the large audience. He is what is called a "regular old-fashioned" Methodist evangelist—sentational in some respects, it is true, but full of common hard sense, and so intensely earnest is he that side allusions are readily assimilated with the continuity of thought along the line of his theme. His theme Sunday night was taken from the parable of the Prodigal Son, in which he most forcefully impressed on those who have wandered away from their Father's home, to return and God's readiness to receive them—so anxious that he will run to meet them on the way.

The call for all who wanted to decide the question at once met with but one response. The call for those who wanted an interest in the prayer about to be offered, was replied to by the raising of quite a number of hands. The after meeting developed still more interest. The meetings will continue this week, and probably longer.

Divorce Question.

It looks as if the Legislature is taking up the divorce question in earnest. Mr. White has introduced a bill prohibiting the divorced husband or wife at fault from marrying within a period of five years, and prohibiting the other from remarrying within a period of one year. Many members believe this prohibition is a little too strict, but Mr. Slatersby has introduced a bill providing that a divorce from bed and board must first be granted, and that an absolute divorce cannot be granted within less than ten months later. Such a restriction, he argues, would tend to prevent married persons from becoming engaged before they secure a divorce, and would lessen the divorce evil. Several bills have been introduced to abolish the one-year separation as grounds for divorce—Ex.

Coleman, W. E. Beach, M. R. Hanner, William Kleeman, A. A. Brandon, Z. Dean and Nace Dixon. The election was close in several wards. Rutherford defeating Bogard by one vote, Beach his opponent by four votes, Kleeman winning by six votes and Brandon by six votes.

LEE'S BIRTHDAY

Will Be Observed In Louisville Jan. 19.

The memory of Gen. Robert E. Lee will be honored in Louisville on the anniversary of his birth next Friday, by the two chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Separate exercises will be held, but both will be marked by the conferring of Crosses of Honor on many of the Confederate veterans who have not yet received these souvenirs.

Thomas Dixon Jr. the Southern author, whose play, The Clansman, has created much discussion, has been invited to be the chief speaker at the exercises at the Confederate Home on Friday night. He is now in Louisville, having come to look after the play which is to be presented here for the first time this week. He probably will remain all during the week and will be the guest of the U. D. C. on Friday. His address will be on the South and Gen. Lee.

The Albert Sidney Johnson chapter will observe the day with exercises at the Louisville hotel on Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The Confederate Home chapter U. D. C., will hold its exercises at 8 o'clock at the Confederate Home. Mrs. May Farris McKinney, of Paducah, president of the State division, U. D. C., will make the speech of presentation when the crosses of honor are given. Several prominent singers will take part in the exercises. The crosses of honor will be conferred only on soldiers who are inmates of the home.—(Courier Journal)

SUFFERED AGONIES FOR FOUR YEARS

Whole Foot Nothing But Proud Flesh—Tried Different Physicians and All Kinds of Ointments—Could Walk Only With Crutches—Olin Man Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES THE BEST ON EARTH"

"In the year 1899 the side of my right foot was cut off from the little toe down to the heel, and the physicians who had charge of me was trying to sew up the side of my foot, but with no success. When he found out that wouldn't work, he began trying to heal the wound with all kinds of ointments, until at last my whole foot and way up above my knee was nothing but proud flesh. I suffered untold agonies for four years, and tried different physicians and all kinds of ointments. I could walk only with crutches. It is sixteen months ago since I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for my limb and foot. The first two months the Cuticura Remedies did not seem to work, but I kept on using them. Both. In two weeks afterwards I saw a change in my limb. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment often during the day and kept it up for seven months, when my limb was healed up just the same as if I never had trouble."

"It is eight months now since I stopped using Cuticura Remedies, the best on God's earth. I am working at the present day, after five years of suffering. The cost of Cuticura Ointment and Soap was only $6; but the doctors' bills were more like $600. Now I can do my work and refer any one to write to me about Cuticura Remedies. I will answer all letters if postage is enclosed. John M. Lloyd, 718 S. Arch Ave., Alliance, Ohio, June 27, 1905."

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one has been reported as not having been relieved in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by L. E. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, up-to-date druggists of Hopkinsville.

Long Farming Records.

Some of the farmers in France have long pedigrees. The French Agricultural society had offered a prize for the farmer of longest standing in the Seine Inférieure. This brought to the front an old farmer named Liot, who, besides proving that he was the doyen of his district, produced documents showing that the farm had been in his family for 227 years. In another neighboring district a farmer named Bernage produced a pedigree of 217 years. Such instances of long descent are far from uncommon in France.

DELUSIONS AS TO THE DIET

How the Public is Misled Often in Buying Marketing—Report of George K. Holmes.

George K. Holmes, chief of division of foreign markets, bureau of statistics, of the department of agriculture, prepared for the year-book of the department a treatise on the peculiarities of consumers in their systems of marketing and the delusions they allow themselves to be placed under or blunder into themselves. The digest has been printed in pamphlet form under the title of "Consumers' Fancies."

The pamphlet points out the mistake people of small means make in always selecting the choice, or most expensive, cuts of meats, when many of the unsought cheaper parts of the animal are equally or even more nutritious. It quotes a meat trader's opinion on recent prices as follows: Porterhouse steak, 20 cents; prime rib, 15 cents; sirloin, 12 cents; round, 8 cents; rump, 7 cents; neck pieces, about 3 cents a pound, respectively. It comments in the following strain:

"Although epicureans admit and chemists demonstrate that the neck piece is toothsome and nutritious, it bears the lowest price. In fact, it would hardly be considered respectable to ask the butcher for a piece of the neck."

Perhaps a low order of proficiency in the housewife's cooking in the past gave the neck piece its low place. The story might have been different had the housewife of former times possessed the French housewife's ability to utilize meats in the making of attractive and delicious dishes. The point of the argument is that cheap cuts are as good as dear when judiciously selected and properly cooked.

The pamphlet also treats of the delusion that exists in the terms applied to various subsistence commodities by which their sale is influenced. Note the following: "The amount of 'Canada' lamb sold in the United States is enormous. The word 'Canada' has the same magical effect upon lamb prices that the word 'Philadelphia' has upon spring poultry or that of 'Long Island' on fresh eggs. These fictions seem to sell the product, and the eating public appears to feel satisfied. By tacking the word 'Canada' onto his product the butcher is enabled to get two cents more per pound for it, or, if he adheres to the normal prices, his customers think they are getting something unusual for their money. In certainly five per cent. of the cases they are getting plain domestic lamb, and about 50 times out of 100 are not getting lamb at all, but mere mutton."

Many other commodities are set forth under the respective delusive titles with the same unreserved treatment of the deceptions practiced in regard to them.

Odd Prescriptions.

Dr. William Osler, in one of his Baltimore lectures, recites a quaint old cure for the gout—a cure from a seventeenth century work, that was designed to show gout's hopelessness. "First pick," said this old cure, a handkerchief from the pocket of a prisoner of 35 who never washed to bed; second, wash the handkerchief in an honest miller's pond; third, dry it on the hedge of a person who was never covetous; fourth, send it to the shop of a physician who never killed a patient; fifth, mark it with a lawyer's ink who never cheated a client; and, sixth, apply it, hot, to the gout tormented spot. "A speedy cure will follow."

The Young Physician.

WHAT HIS EXPERIENCE PROVED.

In the early sixties it was usually the duty of a practicing physician to ride many miles every day in his regular round of visits upon his patients. In those days a young man who had received a splendid medical training in one of the best medical colleges of that day was accustomed to ride ten, twenty, thirty miles or more visiting the sick and afflicted. His success was soon phenomenal. Doctors and families called for consultation at the towns at considerable distances by rail. His specialty was the cure of those common and distressing diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, by combining the extracts of the following medicinal plants in just the right proportion, without the use of alcohol his "Prescription" almost invariably cured such cases. Later, in order to place this remedy before the public in a shape easily to be procured, he established a laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., where regularly prepared pills were put in charge to accurately prepare his "Prescription" and send it in shape for shipment to all parts of the world. This remedy, which he named Dr. Pierce's "Prescription," has since been called "Pierce's Favorite Prescription" but a tonic and nerve food for the system, and a "Pierce's Prescription," contains the following ingredients: Lady's Slipper root, Black Columb root, Hudson root, Blue Cohosh root, Golden Seal root, and chemically prepared. Dr. Pierce does not claim for his "Prescription" that it is a cure-all. It is recommended as a most potent and powerful remedy, that it can be truly affirmed of "Favorite Prescription" that it always helps and almost always cures. Ninety per cent. of the women who give this medicine a fair and faithful trial are cured and remain cured.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra,
tabernacle course No. 6, Jan. 18,
stands high in the ranks of ladies' orchestras. It is first class in every particular—every one an artist;
every number a gem. Following are some of the press notices where they have appeared:

Burton, O.—When an orchestra is encored after every number is response to insistent and prolonged applause, even to being compelled to render an encore after the last number, it argues that the concert was surely of unquestionable pleasure and satisfaction, and there can be no doubt as to the musical status of such a company. These things speak most eloquently of the high grade and success of the work of the Cleveland Orchestra.

Goshen, Ind.—It plays in their usual
good style, and it is always a pleasure to hear them. Their renditions are unusually clear and precise, with a refreshing dash and military swing that surprises one that it be possible for a woman to execute thus. They stand high in the ranks of ladies' orchestras.

Glenville, O.—Every number was encored or had to be repeated. The ladies are versatile and display rare ability and talent.

The Power of Love.

What promises to be the dramatic event of the season will be the coming appearance here of Theodore Kremer's latest play, "The Power of Love." This play has aroused considerable discussion among the dramatic critics throughout the country, on account of its daring and most novel plot. Although it contains many startling situations and thrilling climaxes, it is entirely devoid of the cheap sensationalism
usually found in dramas of this kind.
The moral tone of the play is high,
and it appeals particularly to the women. "The Power of Love" is a play of intense heart interest and appeals to the best in human nature, while the comedy elements are not overlooked. The play is interpreted by a superb cast of artists, each of whom was carefully selected for his or her peculiar fitness for the respective parts. Throughout the play many pleasing specialties are introduced by the various members of the company. A carload of elegant scenery and marvelous mechanical and electrical effects add greatly to the enjoyment of the performance.

"The Power of Love" will be seen at Holland's Opera House Wednesday evening, Jan. 17th. Best seats 50c; general admission 35c; gallery
25c.
